Thermo Fisher Scientific is pleased to announce the launch of LabLink Extra – a powerful but simple tool to access your essential Quality Control information from the Internet.

LabLink Extra works in unison with the LabLink xL Quality Assurance Program to provide a gateway for up to the minute support data for the QC products manufactured by Thermo Fisher Scientific and the LabLink xL QAP system.

Key Features of LabLink Extra:

- Access to online QC package insert documents and updates.
- Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) documents available for download.
- Quality Control handling and enhanced performance recommendations.
- LabLink xL QC data file generation guidelines (LIS and Instrument options).
- Default methodology and reagent options for new LabLink xL instrument configurations.
- Access to monthly Condensed Interlab LabLink xL reports to evaluate current lot QC performance.
- Country specific technical support contact information available on demand.

How can you access LabLink Extra?

If you are currently using any QC product manufactured by Thermo Fisher Scientific under the MAS, DADE or MONI-TROL brands you are entitled to access LabLink Extra at no charge. Please see below for access details depending on whether you have an existing LabLink xL Web account or are new to the LabLink QC program.

Existing LabLink xL Accounts

Your existing login and password to LabLink xL Web will provide immediate access to LabLink Extra. When accessing the LabLink xL login page (www.maslablink.com), select the LabLink Extra button and click Login to access the new application.

New LabLink Extra Accounts

If you are an existing or new user of Quality Control products manufactured by Thermo Fisher Scientific, please log into www.maslablink.com and click on the Create New LabLink Extra Account. Once your account has been approved you will be emailed with your login details for LabLink Extra.
